

SPUR YOUR CURIOSITY!

Denver's New educational destination is fully open!

CSU Spur is a place where kids and adults alike can explore and learn about food, water, and health. Visitors can watch veterinarians at work, see horses rehabilitate on underwater treadmills, take a cooking class, watch water researchers in their labs, and visit our rooftop greenhouse. CSU Spur is always free and there's tons to see!

It's free.
Come visit.
